

I am on the do not call list and would like for it to stay as it is. When you have 1.5 million people saying something then the government should be listening to them, not big business.

Thank You